MIAMI METRO AREA

The Miami metropolitan area is the 67th largest metropolitan area in the entire world and is the 8th largest metropolitan area in the United States. This 6,137 square mile portion of South Florida is home to more than 6 million residents and has seen a population growth of more than 7% since 2010. The city of Miami itself has a population of more than 430,000, making it the second most populous metropolis in the southeastern U.S.

COCONUT CREEK

Coconut Creek, FL is located 37 miles north of Miami, and is part of Broward County. The city is the first in Florida and eleventh in the country to be certified as a “Community Wildlife Habitat”, and in 2010, Money magazine named the city of Coconut Creek the 48th best small town to live in the United States. Combined with it’s proximity and connectivity to West Palm Beach, Ft Lauderdale, and Miami, this makes it a desirable community for families, working professionals and retirees alike. The city is home to the Seminole Casino Coconut Creek which employs over 2,000 and draws visitors from throughout the state and country. It is also home to Broward College’s North Campus, the Technological University of America and the Atlantic Technical College. American Top Team’s headquarters is also located in Coconut Creek, one of the primary teams in mixed martial arts internationally. There are numerous large automobile dealerships located in the city as well which are also major employers for residents. These are just some of the factors that have led the city to be named as one of the Top Ten Place to Live in Florida by Movoto and NerdWallet.
